

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Christa Palit
DOCKET NO.: 10-24702.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-06-303-022-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Christa Palit, the appellant(s), by attorney Tina Marie Zekich, of Law Offices of Tina M. Zekich in Orland Park; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 7,175
IMPR: $ 32,509
TOTAL: $ 39,684

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject has 8,200 square feet of land, which is improved with an 81 year old, one and one-half-story, frame and masonry, single-family dwelling. The subject's improvement size is 1,260 square feet of living area, and its total assessment is $39,684. This assessment yields a fair market value of $443,893, or $352.30 per square foot of living area (including land), after applying the 2010 Illinois Department of Revenue three year median level of assessment for Class 2 properties of 8.94%. The appellant, via counsel, argued that the fair market value of the subject property was not accurately reflected in its assessed value as the basis of this appeal.

In support of the market value argument, the appellant submitted evidence showing that the subject sold in March 2010 for $246,000. This evidence included a settlement statement, a printout from the Multiple Listing Service, and a printout from the Cook County Recorder of Deeds' website. Furthermore, the appellant's pleadings state that the sale was not between related parties, that the subject was advertised for sale on the open market, that the parties used a real estate broker, and that the sale was pursuant to a foreclosure. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The Cook County Board of Review submitted its "Board of Review-Notes on Appeal," wherein the subject's total assessment of $39,684 was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted descriptive and assessment information for three properties suggested as comparable to the subject. The comparables are described as one and one-half-story, frame and masonry, single-family dwellings. Additionally, the comparables range: in age from 51 to 52 years; in size from 1,329 to 1,368 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessments from $24.14 to $25.69 per square foot of living area. The comparables also have several amenities. The board of review's grid sheet also states that the subject sold in January 2007 for $357,000, or $283.33 per square foot of living area, including land. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

In rebuttal, the appellant argued reaffirmed the evidence previously submitted. The appellant also submitted evidence showing the subject's 2011 assessed valuation as determined by the Cook County Assessor. The subject's 2011 assessment was $24,600.

At hearing, the appellant's attorney, Tina Zekich, reaffirmed the evidence previously submitted, and stated that the sale of the subject in March 2010 was pursuant to a foreclosure. Ms. Zekich argued that Senate Bill 3334 of the 96th General Assembly, enacted as Public Act 96-1083, allows the sale price of the subject to be considered, even though it was sold pursuant to a foreclosure. The Cook County Board of Review Analyst, Gabriela Nicolau, argued that Public Act 96-1083 only applied to comparable sales submitted by the parties, and not the compulsory sale of the subject. Ms. Zekich was unable to identify any legal authority, including Public Act 96-1083, which grants the Property Tax Appeal Board authority to consider the compulsory sale of the subject. Ms. Zekich also could not identify any evidence in the record to show that the sale price was similar to other similar arm's-length transactions.

After reviewing the record, considering the evidence, and hearing the testimony, the Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

When overvaluation is claimed, the appellant has the burden of proving the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. Cook Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 339 Ill. App. 3d 529, 545 (1st Dist. 2002); National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 331 Ill. App. 3d 1038, 1042 (3d Dist. 2002) (citing Winnebago Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 313 Ill. App. 3d 179 (2d Dist. 2000)); 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal, a recent arm's length sale of the subject property, recent sales of comparable properties, or recent construction costs of the subject property. Calumet Transfer, LLC v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 401 Ill. App. 3d 652, 655 (1st Dist.

2010); 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.65(c). "[A] contemporaneous sale between parties dealing at arm's length is not only relevant to the question of fair cash market value, (citations) but would be practically conclusive on the issue of whether an assessment was at full value." People ex rel. Korzen v. Belt Ry. Co. of Chi., 37 Ill. 2d 158, 161 (1967).

In addressing the appellant's market value argument, the Board finds that the sale of the subject in March 2010 for $246,000 was a "compulsory sale." A "compulsory sale" is defined as:

(i) the sale of real estate for less than the amount owed to the mortgage lender or mortgagor, if the lender or mortgagor has agreed to the sale, commonly referred to as a "short sale" and (ii) the first sale of real estate owned by a financial institution as a result of a judgment of foreclosure, transfer pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure, or consent judgment, occurring after the foreclosure proceeding is complete.

35 ILCS 200/1-23. Real property in Illinois must be assessed at its fair cash value, which can only be estimated absent any compulsion on either party.

Illinois law requires that all real property be valued at its fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale where the owner is ready, willing, and able to sell but not compelled to do so, and the buyer is likewise ready, willing, and able to buy, but is not forced to do so.

Bd. of Educ. of Meridian Cmty. Unit Sch. Dist. No. 223 v. Ill. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 961 N.E. 2d 794, 802 (2d Dist. 2011) (citing Chrysler Corp. v. Ill. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 69 Ill. App. 3d 207, 211 (2d Dist. 1979)). However, when there is a recent sale of the subject, and that sale is a compulsory sale, the Board may consider evidence which would show whether the sale was an arm's-length transaction. Calumet Transfer, 401 Ill. App. 3d at 655-56. In this case, the appellant did not submit any such evidence to show that the sale of the subject in March 2010 for $246,000 was an arm's-length transaction. Such evidence could have included the descriptive and sales information for recently sold properties that are similar to the subject. See id. at 656. Since there is no evidence that the sale of the subject was an arm's-length transaction, the Board finds that the subject is not overvalued and a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
