

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Tom Jensen
DOCKET NO.: 10-24931.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 27-18-104-038-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Tom Jensen, the appellant, by attorney Brian S. Maher of Weis, DuBrock, Doody & Maher in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 15,568
IMPR.: $ 30,512
TOTAL: $ 46,080

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a two-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction. The dwelling is 20 years old and contains 4,130 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a three-car garage. The property has a 24,325 square foot site and is located in Orland Park, Orland Township, Cook County.

The subject property is an owner occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board for the prior years under docket numbers 08-29471.001-R-1 and 09-30853.001-R-1. In those appeals the Property Tax Appeal Board rendered decisions lowering the assessment of the subject property to $46,080 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that 2008, 2009, and 2010 are within the same general assessment period for residential property in Orland Township. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.90(i)).

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased on February 25, 2009 for a price of $480,000. On the basis of this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to reflect the purchase price.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the 2010 final assessment of the subject property totaling $76,058 ($9,730 for land and $66,328 for the improvement) was disclosed. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on four equity properties, one of which was a sale. Comparable #4 sold in June 2009 for $650,000 or for $159.35 per square foot of living area, land included. The board of review also provided a list of twenty sale properties which sold from 1992 through 2009 for prices ranging from $84,000 to $640,000. However, descriptive evidence for these sale properties was not provided. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. Pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185), the Board finds the prior year's decision should be carried forward to the subsequent year subject only to equalization.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The Property Tax Appeal Board takes notice that a decision reducing the subject's 2008 assessment has been issued. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner occupied dwelling and that 2008, 2009, and 2010 are within the same general assessment period for Orland Township. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the Board's prior year's decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
