

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Stephen Walsh
DOCKET NO.: 10-27866.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 32-33-303-052-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Stephen Walsh, the appellant(s); and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $1,650
IMPR: $5,055
TOTAL: $6,705

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of a 6,600 square foot parcel of land improved with a 46-year old, one-story, masonry, single-family dwelling containing approximately 1,017 square feet of living area and one bath. The appellant argues that the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in the property's assessed valuation as the basis of this appeal.

In support of the market value argument, the appellant included a copy of the settlement statement indicating the subject sold on November 24, 2010 for $46,000. The petition indicates the property was purchased from the bank as a foreclosure.

In addition, the appellant submitted an appraisal of the subject estimating a market value of $75,000 as of October 15, 2010 based on the sales comparison and cost approaches to value. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board of review submitted "Board of Review-Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's total assessment of $11,445. The subject's final assessment reflects a fair market value of $128,020 using the Illinois Department of Revenue's 2010 three year median level of assessment for class 2 property of 8.94%.

In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted descriptions and assessment information on four properties. These properties are described as one-story, frame or frame and masonry, single-family dwellings. The properties range: in age from 1 to 57 years; in size from 1,017 to 1,229 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessments from $4.87 to $9.47 per square foot of living area. The properties sold from April 2008 to September 2010 for prices ranging from $96,500 to $255,541 or from $89.50 to $164.44 per square foot of living area. As a result of this analysis, the board requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After considering the evidence and reviewing the record, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

When overvaluation is claimed the appellant has the burden of proving the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002); Winnebago County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 313 Ill.App.3d 179 (2nd Dist. 2000). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal, a recent arm's length sale of the subject property, recent sales of comparable properties, or recent construction costs of the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.65(c).

In addressing the appellant's market value argument, the PTAB finds that the sale of the subject in November 2010 was a "compulsory sales." A "compulsory sale" is defined as

- (i) the sale of real estate for less than the amount owed to the mortgage lender or mortgagor, if the lender or mortgagor has agreed to the sale, commonly referred to as a "short sale" and
- (ii) the first sale of real estate owned by a financial institution as a result of a judgment of foreclosure, transfer pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure, or consent judgment, occurring after the foreclosure proceeding is complete.

35 ILCS 200/1-23. Real property in Illinois must be assessed at its fair cash value, which can only be estimated absent any compulsion on either party.

Illinois law requires that all real property be valued at its fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale where the owner is ready, willing, and able to sell but not compelled to do so, and the buyer is likewise ready, willing, and able to buy, but is not forced to do so.

Board of Educ. of Meridian Community Unit School Dist. No. 223 v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 961 N.E.2d 794, 802, 356 Ill.Dec. 405, 413 (2d Dist. 2011) (citing Chrysler Corp. v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 69 Ill.App.3d 207, 211, 387 N.E.2d 351 (2d Dist. 1979)).

However, the Illinois General Assembly recently provided very clear guidance for the Board with regards to compulsory sales. Section 16-183 of the Illinois Property Tax Code states as follows:

The Property Tax Appeal Board shall consider compulsory sales of comparable properties for the purpose of revising and correcting assessments, including those compulsory sales of comparable properties submitted by the taxpayer.

35 ILCS 200/16-183. Therefore, the PTAB is statutorily required to consider the compulsory sale submitted by the parties.

In considering the compulsory sale of the subject property, and the suggested comparables the PTAB finds the sale is not reflective of the market value of the subject. The PTAB finds the best evidence of the subject's market value is the appraisal.

The PTAB finds this appraisal to be persuasive for the appraiser inspected the subject property and developed the cost and sales comparison approaches to value in estimating the subject's market value. Moreover, market data was used to obtain improved sale comparables while providing sufficient detail regarding each sale as well as appropriate adjustments, where necessary.

Therefore, the PTAB finds that the subject property contained a market value of $75,000 for tax year 2010. Since the market value of the subject has been established, the median level of assessment as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue's 2010 three-year median level of assessments for class 2, residential property of 8.94% will apply.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
