

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: William Sebastian
DOCKET NO.: 10-31071.001-C-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-33-410-020-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are William Sebastian, the appellant, by attorney Michael D. Gertner the Law Office of Michael D. Gertner, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $22,640
IMPR.: $23,610
TOTAL: $46,250

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2010 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with one-story commercial building of masonry construction with 1,176 square feet of building area used as an auto repair facility. The building was constructed in 1961. Features of the building include a poured reinforced concrete foundation, a concrete slab floor, two overhead doors, a two-bay garage area and one unisex bathroom.

Site improvements include asphalt paved parking for six vehicles, wrought iron fencing and a single gas pump island with two handles. The property has a 5,750 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The property is classified as a class 5-23 gasoline station under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $185,000 as of January 1, 2009. The appraisal was prepared by Samuel S. Zagorac, Certified General Real Estate Appraiser; Gary M. Skish, Certified General Real Estate Appraiser; and Gary T. Peterson, Certified General Real Estate Appraiser, of First Real Estate Services, Ltd. Peterson also has the Member of the Appraisal Institute (MAI) designation. In estimating the market value of the subject property the appraisers developed the sales comparison approach to value.

The appellant also submitted a copy of the final decision issued by the board of review establishing a total assessment for the subject property of $79,060. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $316,240 when applying the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance level of assessments for class 5-23 property of 25%. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's assessment be reduced to $46,250 to reflect the appraised value.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" and evidence in support of the assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e)). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c)). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the only evidence of market value submitted in this record to be the appraisal presented by the appellant. The appellant's appraisers estimated the subject property had a market value of $185,000 as of January 1, 2009. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $316,240, which is above the appraised value. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of the assessment of the subject property or to refute the appellant's argument as required by Section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a) & §1910.69(a)). Based on this record the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment commensurate with the appellant's request is appropriate.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
