

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Alex Szatanek
DOCKET NO.: 10-33273.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-23-312-016-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Alex Szatanek, the appellant, by attorney Stephanie Park of Park & Longstreet, P.C. in Rolling Meadows; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,702
IMPR.: $27,099
TOTAL: $31,801

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2010 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a multi-level dwelling of frame and masonry construction. The dwelling is approximately 10 years old and has 1,430 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a partial finished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 9,900 square foot site and is located in Palatine, Palatine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-34 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on 16 equity comparables that ranged in age from 26 to 54 years.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $31,801. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $27,099 or $18.95 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables that were either 31 or 43 years old.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

Both parties submitted information on a total of 20 suggested equity comparables. The Board finds that all of the comparable submitted were multi-level dwellings of frame or frame and masonry construction. In addition, they had the same assigned neighborhood code as the subject and were also similar in living area and foundation. Despite these similarities, the Board finds the comparables submitted by the parties were considerably older than the subject property. Although none of the comparables was sufficiently similar to the subject in age, the Board notes that the comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $14.75 to $20.73 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $18.95 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the comparables submitted for this appeal. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
