

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: John Murphy
DOCKET NO.: 10-35239.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-18-200-012-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are John Murphy, the appellant(s); and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 9,105
IMPR.: $ 69,995
TOTAL: $ 79,100

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2010 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 3,932 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1929. Features of the home include a full basement, central air conditioning, two fireplaces and a two-car garage. The property has a 6,070 square foot site and is located in Glencoe, New Trier Township, Cook County.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $900,000 as of June 21, 2010. The appraisal's market value included the subject and two separate parcels which are vacant and contiguous with the subject. The additional parcels of land are indentified by separate parcel numbers that are not part of this appeal.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $79,100. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $884,787 or $225.02 per square foot of living area, land included, when using the 2010 three year median level of assessment for Cook County of 8.94% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted four equity comparables.

In rebuttal, the appellant submitted a 2009 PTAB decision lowering the subject's assessment for all three parcels to $80,100 per the 2010 appraisal.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

As to the subject's market value, the Board gives little weight to the appellant's appraisal. The Board finds that the appraisal's market value is based on the three parcels of land. However, the subject's 2010 appeal is based on only one of the parcels. No breakdown of market value was provided for only the subject and not including the adjacent parcels of land. The Board finds that because of this analysis, the estimate of the value for the subject parcel under appeal is unreliable.

Accordingly, in determining the fair market value of the subject property, the Board finds that the appellant failed to submit sufficient evidence to show the subject was overvalued. As a final note, 2010 is a reassessment year for New Trier Township, thus the 2009 decision is irrelevant. Therefore, the Board finds that the appellant has not met its burden by a preponderance of the evidence and that the subject does not warrant a reduction based upon the market data submitted into evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
