

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Steve Shive
DOCKET NO.: 11-00066.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 08-22-18-401-002

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Steve Shive, the appellant; and the Greene County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Greene County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $1,211
IMPR.: $2,143
TOTAL: $3,354

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of a residential property located in Roodhouse Township, Greene County, Illinois.

The appellant submitted evidence before the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted evidence showing the subject property was purchased in November 2010 for $7,657. The evidence also indicated the appellant renovated the dwelling prior to occupancy for $2,500 for a total acquisition cost of $10,157. The evidence indicates the parties involved in the transaction were not related, but the subject property was not advertised for sale in the open market.

The appellant also submitted a copy of the final decision issued by the Greene County Board of Review. The subject property had a final assessment of $11,675, which reflects an estimated market value of $35,357 when applying Greene County's three-year median level of assessments of 33.02%. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a)). Therefore, the board of review was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(a)).

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002); 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c)). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Illinois Supreme Court has defined fair cash value as what the property would bring at a voluntary sale where the owner is ready, willing, and able to sell but not compelled to do so, and the buyer is ready, willing and able to buy but not forced to do so. Springfield Marine Bank v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 44 Ill.2d. 428, (1970). The Board finds the subject's transaction does not meet one of the key fundamental elements of an arm's-length transaction because it was not advertised for sale in the open market. However, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the only evidence contained in this record with respect the subject's fair market value is its sale price $7,657 plus the renovation cost of $2,500 for a total acquisition price of $10,157. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of the assessment of the subject property or refute the valuation evidence submitted by the appellant as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a). Therefore, the board of review was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(a)). Based on this record, the Board finds the subject property had fair market value of $10,157 as of January 1, 2011, which is less than its estimated market value of $35,357 as reflected by its assessment. Therefore, a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
