

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Residential Alternatives of IL Inc./RFMS
DOCKET NO.: 11-01665.001-C-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-13-35-331-010

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Residential Alternatives of IL Inc./RFMS, the appellant, by attorney Robert W. McQuellon III in Peoria, and the Stephenson County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Stephenson County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 87,610
IMPR: $1,232,390
TOTAL: $1,320,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Stephenson County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessments for the 2011 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a commercial property located in Freeport Township, Stephenson County, Illinois

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted three suggested compalbe sales with varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject. The comparables sold from June 2009 to October 2011 for prices ranging from $1,080,000 to $2,100,000.

The appellant also submitted the final decision issued by the Stephenson County Board of Review disclosing the subject's final assessment of $1,416,410. The subject's assessment reflects an estimated market value of $4,281,771 when applying Stephenson County's 2011 three-year median level of assessment of 33.08% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(c)(1). Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's assessment be reduced to reflect an estimated market value of $3,960,000.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a). Therefore, the board of review was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(a).

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant has met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the only evidence of market value contained in this record are the comparable sales submitted by the appellant. The comparables had varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject. They sold from June 2009 to October 2011 for prices ranging from $1,080,000 to $2,100,000. The subject's assessment reflects an estimated market value of $4,281,771, which is greater than the comparable sales submitted by the appellant. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or refute the value evidence submitted by the appellant. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a). Thus, the board of review was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(a). Based on this record, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted commensurate with the appellant's assessment request.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
