

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Basler Electric Company
DOCKET NO.: 11-05904.001-I-2
PARCEL NO.: 02-1-18-32-00-000-002

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Basler Electric Company, the appellant, by attorney Jackson E. Donley, Springfield; the Madison County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Madison County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $104,950
IMPR.: $541,264
TOTAL: $646,214

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject consists of an industrial property located in Saline Township, Madison County, Illinois.

The appellant submitted evidence before the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming the subject's assessment is not reflective of fair market value. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating a fair market value for the subject property of $1,940,000 as of January 1, 2010. The appellant's appeal petition indicates Madison County Board Assessment Officials assessed the subject property at $793,290, which reflects an estimated market value of $2,381,537 when applying Madison County's 2011 three-year median level of assessments of 33.31%. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessed valuation.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a)). Therefore, the Madison County Board of Review was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(a)).

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c)). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant in this appeal submitted an appraisal to demonstrate the subject property's assessment was not reflective of fair market value. The appraisal conveyed an estimated market value of $1,940,000 as of January 1, 2011. The subject property's assessment reflects an estimated market value of $2,381,537, which is considerably greater than the appraisal submitted by the appellant. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of the assessment of the subject property or refute the valuation evidence submitted by the appellant as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a)). Therefore, the board of review was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(a)). The Board has examined the evidence contained in this record and finds that it supports a reduction in the assessed valuation of the subject property. Since fair market value has been established, Madison County's 2011 three-year median level of assessments of 33.31% shall apply.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
