

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Joseph Insolia
DOCKET NO.: 11-29795.001-C-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-20-102-009-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Joseph Insolia, the appellant(s); and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 12,304
IMPR.: $ 18,750
TOTAL: $ 31,054

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2011 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a one-story building with 1,250 square feet of building area. The building is 92 years old. The property has a 3,125 square foot site, and is located in Jefferson Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 5-17 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables. The appellant also checked "recent appraisal" as the basis of appeal. In support of this contention, the appellant submitted an opinion of value from Realty Champions; however, an appraisal was not submitted.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $46,323. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $34,019, or $27.22 per square foot of building area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on five comparable sales from the CoStar Comps Service.

At hearing, the appellant presented his equity comparables. The board of review's representative questioned the appellant regarding the appellant's comparables. The appellant indicated the comparables were occupied in 2011. The board of review's representative stated that the appellant's submission of an opinion of value from Realty Champions was not an appraisal. The hearing officer agreed, noted the author of the opinion was not present, and stated the Board would grant no weight to it.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables #1, #2, and #3. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $5.95 to $9.28 per square foot of building area. The subject's assessment of $27.22 per square foot of building area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. The Board finds that an upward adjustment to the comparables is necessary to account for the differences in size of comparables #1 and #2 and the subject property and the difference in age between comparable #3 and the subject property. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant demonstrated with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
