

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Steven Neumeyer
DOCKET NO.: 12-04206.001-C-1
PARCEL NO.: 03-29.0-401-020

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Steven Neumeyer, the appellant and the St. Clair County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the St. Clair County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 7,500
IMPR.: $ 6,553
TOTAL: $14,053

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the St. Clair County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the subject's assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a commercial property located in Caseyville Township, St. Clair County.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of the overvaluation argument, the appellant submitted evidence disclosing the subject property sold in December 2010 for $42,000.

The appellant also submitted the final decision issued by the St. Clair County Board of Review disclosing the subject's final assessment of $58,147. The subject's assessment reflects an estimated market value of $173,781 when applying St. Clair County's 2012 three-year median level of assessment of 33.46%. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a). Therefore, the board of review was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(a).

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant has demonstrated the subject property was overvalued by a preponderance of evidence and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the only evidence of market value in this record is the sale price of the subject property in December 2010 for $42,000. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $173,781, which is greater than its sale price. The Board finds the board of review did not submit any evidence to challenge the subject's sale price nor support the assessment of the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a). Therefore, the board of review was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(a). Based on this evidence, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted. Since market value has been established, St. Clair County's 2012 three-year average median level of assessment of 33.46% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue shall apply. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(c)(1).
