

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Aron Frederick Peterson Trust
DOCKET NO.: 13-03357.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-03-411-005

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Aron Frederick Peterson Trust, the appellant; and the Williamson County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Williamson County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,280
IMPR: $7,500
TOTAL: $9,780

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Williamson County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a residential property located in Carterville Township, Williamson County.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted a contract pertaining to the sale of the subject property. The evidence and appeal petition indicates the subject property was purchased for $29,900. The sale was an installment contracted initiated on December 31, 2012. The appellant's appeal petition indicates the parties to the transaction were not related and the property was advertised for sale in the open market for three months.

The appellant also submitted the final decision issued by the Williamson County Board of Review disclosing the subject's final assessment of $10,710. The subject's assessment reflects an estimated market value of $32,742 when applying Williamson County's 2013 three-year average median level of assessment of 32.71% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(c)(1). Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's assessment be reduced to reflect its sale price.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a). Therefore, the board of review was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(a).

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant has met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the only evidence of market value contained in this record is the sale of the subject property for $29,900. The subject's assessment reflects an estimated market value of $32,742, which is greater than the subject's sale price. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of the correct assessment of the subject property or to refute the value evidence submitted by the appellant. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a). Thus, the board of review was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(a). Based on the evidence contained in this record, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted. Since market value has been established, Williamson County's 2013 three-year average median level of assessment of 32.71% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue shall apply. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(c)(1).

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
