

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Geary Depue
DOCKET NO.: 13-29903.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 30-17-307-015-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Geary Depue, the appellant(s); and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $1,404
IMPR.: $4,186
TOTAL: $5,590

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 4,680 square foot parcel of land improved with a 84-year old, one-story, frame, non-owner occupied, single-family dwelling. The property is located in Thornton Township, Cook County. The property is a class 2-02 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of the market value argument, the appellant submitted an appraisal undertaken by William White of T.J. McCarthy & Associates, Ltd. The report indicates White is a State of Illinois certified residential appraiser. The appraiser indicated an estimated market value of $33,000 as of May 9, 2013. The appraisal report utilized the sales comparison approach to value to estimate the market value for the subject property.

Under the sales comparison approach, the appraiser analyzed the sales of four properties described as one-story, frame, single-family dwellings between 60 and 98 years old and located within a mile and a quarter radius of the subject. They contain between 816 and 1,314 square feet of living area and sold from July 2012 to April 2013 for prices ranging from $30.06 to $38.11 per square foot of living area. The appraiser adjusted each of the comparables for pertinent factors. Based on the similarities and differences of the comparables when compared to the subject, the appraiser estimated a value for the subject under the sales comparison approach of $33,000.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $5,590 was disclosed. The subject's final assessment reflects a fair market value of $55,900 or $61.70 per square foot of living area when the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance level of assessment of 10% for Cook County Class 2 properties is applied.

In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review presented descriptions, assessment and sales data on four properties suggested as comparable. The properties are described as one or one and one-half story, frame, masonry or frame and masonry, single-family dwellings between 55 and 112 years old. They contain between 672 and 960 square feet square feet of living area and sold from June 2010 to November 2011 for prices that ranged from $62.50 to $107.53 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

At hearing, the appellant, Geary Depue, opined that the market values in Calumet City, where the subject is located, have decreased. He did not present the appraiser as a witness.

Mr. Depue testified that he is familiar with the properties analyzed by the appraiser in the subject's appraisal. As to the appraisal's comparable #1, the appellant testified that this property is nicer than the subject and is located one-half block away from the subject. As to comparables #2 and #3, he testified that the subject is nicer than these houses. He stated comparable #2 is located about one and one-half blocks away while comparable #3 is one and one-half miles away from the subject with two main streets in between. As to comparable #4, Mr. Depue testified that this property is three blocks from the subject and similar to the subject.

The board of review's representative, Joseph Power, raised an objection to the appellant's appraisal because the appraiser was not present at the hearing to testify or be cross-examined; and therefore, he argued that the appraisal is hearsay. Mr. Power testified that the four sale comparables submitted by the board of review support the subject's market value and current assessment. Based upon this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the assessment.

In rebuttal, the Mr. Depue testified that the board of review's comparables #2 and #3 are brick homes and that comparable #4 may be located two miles away from the subject with one or two main streets in between. He opined that there are hundreds of properties in Calumet City that are listed for sale for similar prices to the subject's appraised value.

Conclusion of Law

When overvaluation is claimed the appellant has the burden of proving the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002); Winnebago County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 313 Ill.App.3d 179 (2nd Dist. 2000). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal, a recent arm's length sale of the subject property, recent sales of comparable properties, or recent construction costs of the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.65(c).

In determining the fair market value of the subject property, the Board looks to the evidence and testimony presented by the parties.

The appellant's appraiser was not present at hearing to testify as to his qualifications, identify his work, testify about the contents of the evidence, the conclusions or be cross-examined by the board of review and the Board. In Novicki v. Department of Finance, 373 Ill.342, 26 N.E.2d 130 (1940), the Supreme Court of Illinois stated, "[t]he rule against hearsay evidence, that a witness may testify only as to facts within his personal knowledge and not as to what someone else told him, is founded on the necessity of an opportunity for cross-examination, and is basic and not a technical rule of evidence." Novicki, 373 Ill. at 344. In Oak Lawn Trust & Savings Bank v. City of Palos Heights, 115 Ill.App.3d 887, 450 N.E.2d 788, 71 Ill.Dec. 100 (1st Dist. 1983) the appellate court held that the admission of an appraisal into evidence prepared by an appraiser not present at the hearing was in error. The appellate court found the appraisal to be hearsay that did not come within any exception to the hearsay rule, thus inadmissible against the defendant, and the circuit court erred in admitting the appraisal into evidence. Id.

In Jackson v. Board of Review of the Department of Labor, 105 Ill.2d 501, 475 N.E.2d 879, 86 Ill.Dec. 500 (1985), the Supreme Court of Illinois held that the hearsay evidence rule applies to the administrative proceedings under the Unemployment Insurance Act. The court stated, however, hearsay evidence that is admitted without objection may be considered by the administrative body and by the courts on review. Jackson 105 objected to the appraisal as hearsay. Therefore, the Board finds the appraisal hearsay and the adjustments and conclusions of value are given no weight. However, the Board will consider the raw sales data submitted by the parties.

In totality, the parties submitted sales data on seven suggested comparables. The Board finds appellant's sale comparables #1 and #2 and the board of review's sale comparables #1 and #3 the most probative. These sales occurred from September 2011 to April 2013 for unadjusted prices ranging from $30.06 to $107.53 per square foot of living area. In comparison, the appellant's assessment reflects a market value of $61.70 per square foot of living area which is within the range established by the sales comparables. After considering adjustments and the differences in the comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's per square foot assessment is supported and a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
